

Information notice pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679

Pursuant to art. 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Regulation for the Protection of Data), the Client is informed that his personal data are processed by BFF Central Europe s.r.o. for the following purposes: customer management, compliance with legal, accounting and tax obligations, business planning, litigation management, internal control services, also through electronic processing, consultation, comparison with pre-established criteria and any other appropriate operation relating to the achievement of these purposes.

Depending on the channel used by the Client to maintain relations with BFF Central Europe s.r.o. the methods of treatment may also be by telephone, telematic or postal. The processing is carried out by personnel appointed in writing and the achievement of the purposes in question may also take place by means of transmission and communication of data to third parties, meaning such third parties authorized to process the same data, as they are responsible for carrying out or providing specific services strictly functional to the execution of the contractual relationship, such as computer service companies, outsourcing companies, consultants and freelancers, all in compliance with the provisions of the law on data security. Personal Data may also be communicated to banks and credit institutions for the management of payments and, in relation to benefits, insurance. A list of the names of all the persons belonging to the above categories is available at the Company's head office. The aforesaid data can be collected both from the interested party and from third parties. The provision of the requested data, whether acquired on the basis of a legal obligation or as strictly functional to the execution of the contractual relationship, is necessary and any refusal to provide it involves the impossibility of carrying out the activities required for the conclusion and execution of the contract.

Personal Data will be stored in a complete manner for the entire period of the execution of the contract; subsequently, Personal Data will be stored for a period of ten years in order to comply with legal obligations. Any further storage of Personal Data or part of Personal Data may be arranged to enforce or defend their rights in any possible location and, in particular, in judicial venues.

The current legislation grants the Data Subject with a number of rights that we invite You to carefully consider. Among these, we remind You of the rights of:

1. Access to the following information:
  - purposes of the processing,
  - categories of Personal Data concerned,
  - recipients or categories of recipient to whom the Personal Data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organizations,
  - existence of the Data Subject right to ask the controller to rectify or erase Personal Data or restrict the processing of Personal Data concerning him or her or object to such processing,
2. Rectification, by this meaning:
  - rectification of inaccurate Personal Data concerning him or her without justified delay,
  - supplement of incomplete Personal Data, including by means of providing a supplementary statement;
3. Erasure of Personal Data concerning him or her without undue delay, if:
  - Personal Data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed,
  - the Data Subject withdraws consent and there is no other legal ground for the processing,
  - You object to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing,
  - the Personal Data have been unlawfully processed,
  - the Personal Data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation,

- the Personal Data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services;
4. Restriction of processing:
    - if the accuracy of the Personal Data is contested, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of such Personal Data,
    - when the processing is unlawful and the Data Subject opposes the erasure of the Personal Data and requests the restriction of their use instead,
    - when the Personal Data are required by the Data Subject for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, although the controller no longer needs them for the purposes of the processing,
    - if you object to processing by virtue of the right of opposition;
  5. Receive notification in case of rectification or erasure of Personal Data or restriction of processing;
  6. Data portability, i.e. the right to receive the Personal Data concerning him or her, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller, where:
    - the processing is based on express consent of the Data Subject for one or more specific purposes or takes place due to a contract signed with the Data Subject and
    - the processing is carried out by automated means;
  7. Objection at any time, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, to processing of Personal Data concerning him or her.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that the rights listed herein have not been recognized to you.
